CIVIL WAR BATTLES & ENCAMPMENT
May 29, 30 & 31

Felton, Calif. – Relive Civil War history Memorial Day weekend as members of the American Civil War Association reenact famous battles. Experience the sights and sounds of cavalry charges, musket fire and artillery shells in one of the longest-running historic reenactments in the West. Ride a 1880s iron horse through an ancient redwood forest as the sound of cannon fire echoes through the mountains.

Glimpse a soldier's daily life as he cooks meals over a campfire, cleans his musket, and prepares for the day's activities. Spectators may visit encampments of Union and Confederate Soldiers, inspect regiments as they march in review, and observe surgeries performed at field hospitals.

Activities begin each day at 10 a.m. with battles at 1:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday and at 2:45 p.m. on Monday. Roaring Camp's steam trains depart each day at 11 a.m., 12:15, 1:30 and 2:45 p.m. and pass through the battlefield on the way to Bear Mountain where they encounter skirmishes at the summit. A chuck wagon barbecue is served from noon to 3 p.m.
